

QUIET COUNTRY RETREAT IN THE HEART OF BUCKHEAD

John Willis Custom Homes has hired T.S. Adams Studio, Architects to update this country charmer in Jackson school district on one of Buckhead's finest streets. While saving the original structure and preserving its character, John Willis Custom Homes will complete a renovation and addition to make this a modern home with master on main and many other high-end appointments. Situated on 2.96 secluded acres, there is plenty of room for a pool.
